Dear Stan:

This letter goes back approximately 30 years to the time when my wife and I and her sister-in-law, Sara, were traveling in France and Switzerland where we met you in Switzerland and then in Paris, and later back in England.

In the meantime, we have been following your career with a great deal of interest and we are particularly glad that you will be addressing the luncheon of the Dallas Council on World Affairs on Monday, August 21.

My wife, Mary Nancy, and I plan to be at the luncheon and we look forward to being able to say hello to you again after all this time.

I don't know what your schedule in Dallas will be that day, but I hope we can have at least a short visit.

With very best regards,

Sincerely,

George B. Andrews
